Compact and comfortable

Modern working environments are multifaceted. They fulfil more than purely functional aspects. At the same time, they are oriented towards the needs of the employees. Classic desk-based workplaces are complemented by informal hubs, spacious team workplaces, flexible central zones, and lounge areas.

The future is comfortable and cosy – just like on spot cosy. Away from standard solutions, the fully upholstered shell chair is the ideal alternative for meeting scenarios and, thanks to its slim design and compact dimensions, also suitable for conference tables.

Regular club chair

Due to their wider armrests, fully upholstered armchairs require more space. This reduces the amount of people to accommodate at a table.

on spot cosy

Due to its compact design, on spot cosy has the width of a regular conference chair. This means that there is room for everyone and enough freedom of movement.

The club chair gives every meeting room an inviting and homely character

ERGONOMICS, FORM AND FUNCTION

More than just comfortable

The name “cosy” says it all: it stands for comfortable sitting – even over a longer period of time. As a fully upholstered shell chair, on spot cosy provides a comfortable seating experience combined with ergonomic features. These features include the seat pan, the sloping front edge as well as the high backrest and the integrated lumbar support for the lower back. The open design of the seat shell allows generous freedom of movement to the left and right. This makes it easy to lean back and relax and promotes an upright sitting posture – ideal in conference situations, for example.

ONE FAMILY - ONE DESIGN

In harmony with its siblings

Whether lounge chair, bistro, or meeting chair – the “spot” family is characterised by flowing lines and an elegant design language. on spot cosy follows these attributes and is the perfect addition to on spot, se:spot and sweetspot. The colours for all models are from the same colour collection, which creates a harmonious feeling of belonging.
